Historical Background

Historically, the concept of schools of prophets originates from biblical narratives, notably in the Old Testament. The Prophet Samuel established a school of prophets (1 Samuel 10:5, 1 Samuel 19:18-24), where young prophets were trained in prophecy, worship, and spiritual disciplines. These schools were not merely academic centers but spiritual training grounds where divine encounters and prophetic gifts were nurtured. Throughout history, similar institutions appeared across cultures, including the Oracles of Delphi in Greece, or the priestly schools in ancient Egypt. In Christian history, prophetic schools have played roles in revival movements, spiritual mentorship, and the training of ministers and prophets.
